Alumna Spotlight: Sabrina Hanitz

Class of 2007, Risk Management & Insurance

Executive Broker Manager, AIG

Sabrina Hanitz is as an Executive Broker Manager responsible for the strategic engagement, growth and management of several key trading partners for AIG. Working with her broker's executive teams, she develops, manages and executes strategic initiatives focused on growth. Sabrina is also an Assistant Vice President responsible for the development, coordination and execution of core strategies for the U.S. Commercial Broker Engagement Practice.

Sabrina joined AIG in 2011 as a Business Development Manager. She began her career in Aon's Construction Services Group in Chicago. Sabrina is a graduate of the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University where she received her Masters of Business Administration (MBA). She also received a Bachelor's of Business Administration (BBA) degree in Risk Management and Insurance from Temple University and has completed her Associate in Risk Management (ARM) designation.

Past Alumni Event:

On Thursday, December 22nd, 2016, the Alumni Affairs Team hosted a Temple Men's Basketball Game from the Liacouras Center Fox Box. 12 alumni gathered with their guests, 6 students and 2 faculty members to watch the Temple Owls defeat the Yale Bulldogs 83-77. Attendees had the opportunity to network and re-connect with familiar faces, while enjoying the comfort of the Fox Box where food and drink were provided.

Past Alumni Event:

Alumni Affairs recently hosted it's annual NYC Alumni Happy Hour at the Perfect Pint in Midtown Manhattan. On Wednesday, January 4th, 2017, 28 alumni, 2 faculty members and 1 student attended this great networking opportunity and fun time to see old friends. Alumni gathered from various companies including Marsh, Willis Towers Watson, AIG, Zurich North America and more. Please take a look below at future Alumni Happy Hours we will be hosting this Spring.
