Alumnus Spotlight: John Dormuth

McConkey & Co

Class of 1993, Accounting and RMI Majors

John has proven expertise in the development and servicing of insurance programs for many industry groups including: manufacturing, distribution, construction, technology, public entity, non-profits, and financial institutions. As a shareholder at McConkey, John is responsible for creating and leading corporate strategies within the commercial lines practice. He also manages the commercial lines carrier relationships for the company.

In addition to maintaining lifelong friendships with fraternity brothers, rugby teammates, and holding season tickets for the Temple Men's Basketball team, John is dedicated to Temple RIHM and GIS in a varied fashion. He is an Adjunct Professor for Professor Luedtke's RMI 2101 course, and has been involved in on-campus broker presentations, Alumni Golf Outings, Broad Street Runs, Awards for Excellence Dinners, and the Spring 2016 Mentorship Program. He is truly Temple Made and Temple Proud!

Past Alumni Event: Mentorship Kick-Off

On February 5th, the Alumni Affairs Team hosted the Spring 2016 Mentorship Kick-Off Event, where the 30 alumni participants were matched with 30 student mentees. All students and 21 alumni were in attendance along with Dr. Drennan. They first enjoyed a networking hour with food and refreshments. In the second hour, the mentorship pairs were revealed, and the mentors/mentees were given the opportunity to introduce themselves and interact.

Past Temple Event: RMI Intern Reception

On February 11th, 175 students attended the RMI Intern Reception in pursuit of internships for Summer 2016. 29 Property and Casualty firms and 15 Employee Benefits firms were there to recruit. 31 alumni were in attendance as recruiters for their companies. Following the event, 22 alumni headed over to the Draught Horse for a Happy Hour where they had the opportunity to further interact with students and faculty. Many alumni remarked at how great it was to be back on campus!
