RMI Workshop: The NextGen Committee at the Insurance Society of Philadelphia presents: How to Brand Yourself

Friday, October 14, 2016

12 :00 PM–12:50 PM

Alter 034

Mike Petinelli, class of 2006, Senior Manager of Global Risk and Insurance at Aramark, in conjunction with colleagues Aimee Jorfi, Account Executive, Aon Risk Solutions, and Denise Hunter, Business Development Leader, Zurich North America, will be discussing the importance of having a strong personal brand. This workshop will be a great opportunity to learn the basics of creating a brand that represents you in a positive manner at your internships and in the professional world. The panel will also discuss the transition from college to the working world and how that can and will impact your personal brand.

Actuarial Science Workshop: Young Alumni Panel

Friday, October 14, 2016

12 :00 PM–12:50 PM

Alter 606

The Sigma Chapter's Actuarial Science young alumni panel will feature recent graduates who are perfectly equipped to give members an idea about professional life immediately after college. The panel, consisting of two to three people, will talk about their day-to-day tasks and also touch upon how they found themselves where they are, as well as struggles and triumphs thus far in their careers. Having been in your seats just a short time ago, these young alumni will be ready to interact with you, answer any questions you might have, and help prepare you for an internship or full-time position.
