Sigma Chapter Attends Philly I-Day

Released: Friday, April 11, 2014

Philadelphia All-Industry Day (Philly I-Day) was held on Wednesday, April 9, 2014 at the Philadelphia Convention Center. It is one of the Delaware Valley's largest insurance and risk management industry professional education and networking events, drawing hundreds of insurance, risk management and legal professionals as well as risk management students from the region. The Sigma Chapter was in ample attendance, seizing the majority of company-sponsored student registrations with 60 members.

St. Baldrick's Fundraiser

A big part of the day was Sigma Chapter's involvement with the St. Baldrick's Foundation Head-Shaving Event. St. Baldrick's Foundation is a volunteer-driven charity committed to funding the most promising research to find cures for childhood cancers and give survivors long, healthy lives. Led by our President, Elizabeth Mattox, (pictured above) 13 Sigma Chapter members volunteered to shave their heads in exchange for donations for St. Baldrick's. As a whole, Sigma Chapter was able to raise a total of $3,080 and donate it to a very worthwhile cause.

The following brave souls decided to get their hair chopped off for a worthy cause: Christopher Rockelman, Elizabeth Mattox, Mary Grace Sear, Steven Costa, Anthony DeMaio, Patrick Jackson, Andrew Pilcicki, Bryce Aichele, Giovanni Adiletta, Vincent Galasso, Anuj Patel, Lefter Kondili, and Michael Esquenazi.
