AS Workshop: Pricing vs Reserving

Friday, February 17, 2017

12:00pm-12:50pm

Alter Hall 031

The pricing vs reserving workshop is a great way to learn the difference between two important actuarial roles! Hosted by Cigna, this workshop will detail the purpose and daily function of an actuary in both the pricing and reserving roles. This workshop will walk students through real world examples of projects that actuaries in either of these roles would perform. This workshop will inform students of the set of skills required of actuaries who work in the roles, as well as noting the pros and cons of the pricing and reserving functions. Attendance is highly recommended for all students, as the pricing and reserving roles are the more common career paths for an actuary.

The presenters will be Heba Raja, Trion, Malik Gray, Admiral Insurance Group, and Brian Finnegan and Anthony Hillanbrand, Philadelphia Insurance Companies.
