AS Workshop: Young Alumni Panel

Friday, March 24, 2017

12:00 PM–12:50 PM

Alter Hall 034

The Sigma Chapter's Actuarial Science young alumni panel will feature recent graduates who are perfectly equipped to give members an idea about professional life immediately after college. The panel will talk about their day-to-day tasks and also touch upon how they found themselves where they are, as well as struggles and triumphs thus far in their careers. Having been in your seats just a short time ago, these young alumni will be ready to interact with you and answer any questions you might have. Our panel will include Zilong Zhao, Cigna, and Colin Anderson, Liberty Mutual, both class of 2016.

RMI Workshop: Professional Designations

Friday, March 24, 2017

12:00 PM–12:50 PM

Alter Hall 031

The CPCU and CEBS designations are two of the most popular and well-regarded designations in the insurance industry. This workshop will discuss the process for attaining these designations. Professor Luedtke and Professor Wilkins will share why it is important to work through exams while in college. In addition, we will also hear from individuals who have passed some of these exams. They will share their study experience and how passing these exams has boosted their resumes. This workshop will be helpful for ALL risk students interested in professional designations.

Fox's Got Talent

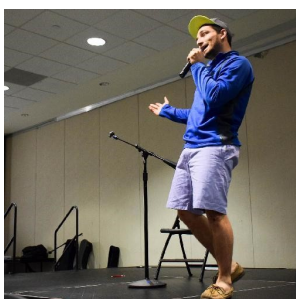

Thursday, March 23, 2017

8:00 PM–10:00 PM, Fox-Gittis Room, Liacouras Center

The Sigma Chapter of Gamma Iota Sigma is happy to host the 3rd Annual Fox's Got Talent. This event is a Fox-wide talent show with the goal of bringing the SPO community together while uncovering the hidden talents of Fox students. You will see talent from various Fox SPO's and have the opportunity to participate in a 50/50 raffle! All proceeds from this event support Gamma Iota Sigma's 2016-2017 Charity of Choice, Artz Philadelphia.

We encourage all to come out and support your fellow Fox students. Everyone in attendance will receive 5 Immersion Points and 5 Student Engagement Points. This is sure to be a fantastic night that you don't want to miss!

THE H. WAYNE SNIDER DISTINGUISHED GUEST LECTURER SERIES PRESENTS:

Jane Lamb

Director of Risk Management

Philadelphia Gas Works

Wednesday, March 22, 2017, 12:00 PM-12:50 PM, Alter Hall 031

Jane Elizabeth Lamb received her J.D. from Temple University School of Law and her A.B. in History from Bryn Mawr College. She currently serves as the Director of Risk Management for Philadelphia Gas Works (PGW), the nation's largest municipally owned gas utility. With dual roles as a quasi-governmental entity and a regulated utility, PGW faces a myriad of workers' compensation, labor, and employment issues. Previously, Ms. Lamb served as counsel to the City of Philadelphia's Risk Management Division, first litigating cases, and then managing the City's Employee Disability Program.

Ms. Lamb has long been active in the workers' compensation community. Since 2008, she has served on the Board of the Pennsylvania Self Insurers Association. She speaks regularly at professional conferences; she has presented Employers' Wave of the Future: Company Wellness Programs at the PSIA Annual Meeting in 2013 and Employers Unplugged: Make Those 90 Days Count at the 12th Annual Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Conference. Additionally, she is active in the utility industry, serving as chair of the American Gas Association Risk Management Committee Annual Meeting in 2013. In 2014, she was an instructor for a CLE and roundtable entitled Ethics in 2014: Across the Board for AEGIS, the premier energy industry insurance mutual. She will be speaking at Philly I-Day this year on Workers' Compensation: What is Modified Duty and How is a Program Created?

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

"Erin Go Bragh"

Friday, March 17, 2017

Some unusual St. Patrick Facts:

- St. Patrick was not Irish– he was from Wales!
- For many years, blue was the color associated with St. Patrick. Green was considered unlucky.
- Your odds of finding a four-leaf clover? 1 in 10,000
- There are more Irish in the USA than Ireland!
- The first St. Patrick's Day parade took place in New York
