Actuarial Science Workshop: The Workplace

Student Engagement Program Eligible

Friday, March 27, 2015, 12 PM-12:50 PM, Alter 035

Tiana Britton (Class of 2012) from Phoenix Life Insurance and several of her colleagues will be presenting on different roles and positions within their company. Attending this workshop will allow students to hear from real industry professionals about the different roles and duties within a company. There will also be an opportunity following this workshop to meet with Ms. Britton and her colleagues to learn more about Phoenix Life.

RMI Workshop: TRIA

Student Engagement Program Eligible

Friday, March 27, 2015, 12 PM-12:50 PM, Alter 033

This workshop will center on the history and significance of both the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act (TRIA) and its successor, the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act (TRIPRA).

March Madness Charity Bake Sale

Friday, March 27, 2015, 9 AM-3 PM, Alter Hall Lobby

Make sure to stop by Gamma Iota Sigma's charity bake sale for a tasty baked good! The theme will be "March Madness" and all proceeds go to our 2014-2015 Charity of Choice, Brave Hearts for Strong Minds!

Love Run, Philadelphia Half Marathon

Student Engagement Program Eligible

Sunday, March 29, 2015, 6 AM-12 PM, Philadelphia Art Museum

On September 11, 2013, Mayor Michael A. Nutter launched the Philadelphia Education Supplies Fund, a new multi-year fundraising campaign to provide funds to schools within the City in order to purchase supplemental classroom supplies, including workbooks, paper, pens and pencils. The Love Run had 10,000 runners in its first year in 2014. We will help out in every way possible on race day from handing out water to helping with registration. This event is capped at 40 students, so make sure to sign up on the Doodle Link if you wish to attend and receive RMI 3682 credit. If you have any questions, you can email Francesca Waddington or Sean Johnson.

Janice Abraham

President & CEO
United Educators

Wednesday, March 25, 2015, 12 PM-12:50 PM, Alter Hall 031

Student Engagement Program Eligible

Janice Menke Abraham joined United Educators (UE) Insurance as president and CEO in 1998. In leading UE, she is responsible for developing and executing business strategy and operational plans for the risk management and insurance company. During her tenure, UE has become known as the premier risk management and liability insurance expert serving educational institutions, offering in-depth expertise on the unique risks, and claims facing education. The company has grown to serve more than 1,200 schools, colleges, and universities. In addition, the company has been consistently profitable, produced high return on equity, and maintained the financial strength and stability to earn an (excellent) rating from A.M. Best every year since 2001.

Abraham was appointed as the first woman chair of the board of governors of the Property Casualty Insurers Association of America from 2009-2010. She currently serves on the association Executive and Investment Committees. Abraham also serves on the board of directors of UE. Additionally, she serves as a Trustee of Whitman College and on The Institutes Board of Directors, The Griffith Foundation, American University School of International Service Dean, Advisory Council, the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges Editorial Board and the LeapFrog USA Board of Directors. She is a former president of the Western Association of College and University Business Officers and a past member of the board of directors of NACUBO and the National Risk Retention Association.

She earned an MBA from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a bachelor's degree in international service from American University.
