Reinsurance Review

Friday, April 1, 2016, 12:00 PM– 12:50 PM, Alter Hall Auditorium 031

This workshop, which will be led by Chip Krauss from Munich Re, will explore the complex nature of reinsurance for both underwriters and actuaries. Students will learn about the possible job opportunities within the reinsurance industry, as well as the impact of reinsurance or retrocession on the traditional insurance industry. Chip will explain the difference between Facultative and Treaty Reinsurance and will also touch on Proportional and Non-proportional Reinsurance. This workshop will further expose students to the ins and outs of reinsurance which is a crucial but often times unnoticed aspect of the industry.

Teresa White

President

Aflac U.S.

Wednesday, March 30, 2016, 12:00 PM-12:50 PM, Alter Hall 031

Teresa White oversees and supports Aflac's extensive insurance distribution network of individual agents and brokers across the country. In her role, she focuses on specific growth enablers, including improving and expanding distribution, focusing on product innovation, owning Aflac's customer experience and strengthening the low cost model, and has aligned sales and marketing operations in support of Aflac's core strategy.

White has held several positions at Aflac since her career began at the company in 1998. These positions include vice president over Client Services; executive vice president of Internal Operations; executive vice president and chief operating officer of Aflac's Columbus operations; and most recently, president of Aflac U.S.

White holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Texas at Arlington and a master's degree in management from Troy University. She is a fellow at The Fellow Life Management Institute (FLMI) and an alumna member of Leadership Columbus. She formerly served on the board of directors for NeighborWorks Columbus as well as Communicorp. She also took a leading role in developing the Columbus Cottage Program benefitting poor, indigent residents living in substandard conditions.

Charity Bake Sale Spring

Friday, April 1, 2016, 9:00 AM-3:00 PM, Alter Hall Lobby

Put a little "Spring" in your step and head on over to the Sigma Chapter's charity bake sale! You will sure to find a treat to satisfy your sweet cravings!

Your continued support for our charity of choice has allowed us to raise $9,951 toward our $15,000 donation goal! Keep up the good work as we finish out the final weeks of the semester!

Riddle: I am endless, but can be wasted. I can't be kept but I can be spent. I can't be owned but can be used. What am I?

Last Weeks Riddle: I travel all over the world, but always stay in my corner. What am I? Answer: A stamp
