Alumna Spotlight: Teron Richardson

Teron Richardson is an analyst in Temple University’s Office of Risk Management and Treasury. In this role, he has various responsibilities related to the University’s insurance coverage, risk management procedures, and banking services. Teron is also involved with the development and implementation of an enterprise risk management function at the University. Prior to joining Temple, Teron worked in commercial lines underwriting at EMC Insurance and CNA. Teron’s underwriting experience has been valuable in assessing the risks of the University as well as advising the Temple community of insurance policies and coverage types.

Teron graduated from Temple’s risk management program in 2011 and earned an MBA from Baker College in 2016. He is currently working on an MS degree from the Fox School of Business with a concentration in human resource management. Teron holds the CPCU, ARM, ARM-E, ARe, AIC, AU, AINS, and ACS designations. As an active member of the Philadelphia CPCU Society, Teron serves as co-chair of the chapter’s New Designee and Candidate Development Committee.

Past Temple Event: GIS & RIHM Graduation

On Thursday May 11th, 2017 senior members of Gamma Iota Sigma and the Department of Risk, Insurance, and healthcare management celebrated their graduation from Temple University. The class of 2017 consists of 211 students and at least 107 full-time jobs (34 AS + 73 RMI) were placed. Students attended a luncheon hosted by the department on the day of graduation in Alter Hall to socialize and reminisce on the memories they’ve made at Temple and the hard work they put in to achieve their goal.
