

Angus Robinson, Jr. Memorial Foundation, Elmer Roe Deaver Foundation and Griffith Foundation Scholarship Winners

Released: February 27, 2013

---

The Angus Robinson, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Foundation is a non-profit education foundation established in the memory of Angus Robinson, Jr., who was a leader in the reinsurance industry for nearly 20 years. The Foundation awards scholarships to students of Risk Management, Insurance or Actuarial Science. Since the Foundation was established in 1990, 477 scholarships have been awarded to 388 students attending 33 colleges in the U.S. and Canada.

Angus Robinson, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Winners:

Justin Kemp

Margaret Lukas

William Thorsson

---

The Sigma Chapter is proud to announce that two members have been awarded the Elmer Roe Deaver Foundation Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded to students who have demonstrated academic achievement and have financial need.

Elmer Roe Deaver Foundation Scholarship Winners:

Michael McGuire

Vincent Galasso

---

The Griffith Foundation promotes the study of risk management and insurance at colleges and universities, encouraging undergraduate and graduate students to take risk management and insurance courses by offering a limited number of scholarships.

Winner of the Columbus Ohio CPCU Chapter Award and the Elizabeth Kocur Award,
Griffith Foundation Scholarships:

William Thorsson

---