DEPARTMENT OF RISK, INSURANCE & HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT Actuarial Science Exam Fee Reimbursement Policy 2021 – 2022 Academic Year

To request exam fee reimbursement for passing Exams P, FM, IFM, LTAM, STAM, SRM, MAS-I, or MAS-II, you must be an undergraduate or graduate declared Actuarial Science major AND current student at the time you passed the exam, be a dues-paid member of Gamma lota Sigma for the 2021 - 2022 academic year, achieve Level One in RAD (Risk and Actuarial Development Program) for the Exam Window of Exam Passing, and have sufficient Gamma meeting attendance as listed below. You must use the date that you sat successfully for the exam as the date of exam passing.

First Exam Window of Exam Passing: Monday, May 3, 2021 – Sunday, January 2, 2022: Cannot miss more than two Wednesday meetings of Gamma lota Sigma during the Fall 2021 semester

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 2022

 Second Exam Window of Exam Passing: Monday, January 3, 2022 – Sunday, May 1, 2022: Cannot miss more than two Wednesday meetings of Gamma lota Sigma during the Spring 2022 semester

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, JULY 15, 2022

Name:
TU ID:
Email:	Phone:
	osited into your account with the Bursar's Office. If bunt, the reimbursement will be applied towards the List the exam(s) passed:
Total amount of exam fees paid, r	nust be at the student rate (if applicable) organization pay for professional exam registration fees?
Declared AS Major?	2021-22 Dues-paid Member of GIS?
Include your signature indicating t	hat you understand the reimbursement policy.
Signature:	Today's Date:

The following three documents must be emailed to Dr. Viswanathan: (1) This completed form, (2) Documentation of the exam pass, and (3) SOA/CAS Receipt (must be the detailed receipt from your SOA/CAS account, not the email receipt).