2017-2018 CEBS Exam Passers

April 11, 2018

CEBS designations signify achievement and expertise in the field of employee benefits. Holders of these designations stand out among their peers and enhance their professional credentials. Industry professionals recognize the commitment to the field demonstrated by CEBS designees.

The CEBS program offers three highly renowned designations covering all aspects of benefits and compensation:

CEBS — The premier designation in employee benefits, considered the standard of excellence in the industry

GBA (Group Benefits Associate)— a specialty designation focusing on health care and other group benefits

RPA (Retirement Plans Associate)— a specialty designation focusing on all aspects of retirement plans

Presented here are the students who have passed CEBS exams. We congratulate them on their achievement!
