

PRESS RELEASE

Spring 2016 Employee Benefits Case Competition

April 15, 2016

On Saturday, April 2, 2016, undergraduate students, under the instruction of Professor Diane Luedtke in the Employee Benefits capstone course, Advanced Topics in Managing Human Capital Risk, participated in a case competition. Students paired in teams of two worked exclusively with industry mentors on real life consulting and underwriting projects. Benefits professionals served as judges for the competition and rated students based on their written reports and oral presentations. The following students received awards, which were broken down into three separate categories as follows:

Best Paper: Olivia DeBottis

Best Presentation: Claudia Stiles-Ennis

Best Overall Presentation: Claudia Stiles-Ennis and Alexa Levine
