Marital Moral Hazard

WedLock Divorce Insurance is "casualty insurance that provides a lump sum of cash (based on initial claim value units of $1,250 USD per unit purchased, up to $250,000) that is paid if your marriage ends in divorce. In addition, each unit increases in value by $250 annually after the policy's waiting period ends so that the longer you have your policy, the higher your claim benefit will be - without any increase in annual premium," the company's site WedlockDivorceInsurance.com says.
