ALTER HALL AUDITORIUM

WEDNESDAY, October 20, 2010

Steve Finkelstein has been the Lead Actuary for Travelers' Ocean Marine Actuarial Unit for the past 2 years and is responsible – among other things – for the development of new pricing models, marketing and strategic support. Prior to joining Travelers, Steve was the NY Division Actuary for Liberty Mutual, where he was involved in strategic planning, pricing, reserving and other projects for workers' compensation, commercial automobile and other liability business written out of NY. He was also the actuarial face of the company to the insurance department and NY

Compensation Insurance Rating Board with regard to evaluating the benefits and costs of the NY workers compensation reforms instituted by Eliot Spitzer. Steve has also worked in consulting at Ernst & Young, where he was involved in a broad array of actuarial work including M&A, litigation support, pollution modeling and audit support. Steve began his career at the Insurance Services Office, where he was responsible for many data validation-related tasks before taking over a leadership role in their Business Owners Unit.
