Positive Physicians Insurance Company

Wednesday, November 16, 2022

12:00 p.m. - 12:50 p.m.

Alter Hall A031, A032

Calling all December 2022 Graduates! Please sit in the reserved seats at the front of the auditorium for our last meeting!

Michael G. Roque is a passionate and accomplished member of the medical professional liability insurance industry and currently serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Positive Physicians Insurance Company. Positive Physicians Insurance Company offers a wide range of professional liability insurance products to physicians and healthcare professionals in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Delaware, Maryland, South Carolina, Michigan, Florida, Georgia, and Texas.

Throughout his 25-year insurance career, Mr. Roque has exclusively focused on the development, improvement, and enhancement of physician, hospital and patient safety professional liability initiatives. He has held several high-level positions at Aon, Marsh, Medicus Insurance Company, NORCAL Group, and Integris Group. Most recently, Mr. Roque held the position of Chief Operating Officer at Integris Group, leading their national operations, marketing, brand, business development, claims, IT and underwriting teams while also overseeing the expansion of the company's national presence. Mr. Roque's leadership goals are to challenge industry norms and create new ways of transacting business, create a culture where freedom of thought and expression are honored, and to grow an organization while becoming a respected and dominant presence in the MPLI market.

Throughout his career, he has specialized in strategic planning, business development, marketing, brand growth, and product development within the Medical Professional Liability industry. Mr. Roque holds a B.B.A. in Risk Management & Insurance from Temple University.
