AS Workshop:

Exam Passers Panel

Monday, November 11, 2019

12:00pm-12:50pm

Alter Hall 035

This workshop is an excellent opportunity for students to provide and receive advice about Actuarial Exams. Students who have taken exams will talk about their experiences with passing Actuarial Exams, the materials they use to study, and how to prepare for specific Actuarial Exams.

Wine Etiquette Workshop

Monday, November 11, 2019

12:00pm-12:50pm

Alter Hall 031

This workshop is open to both AS and RMI majors and intends to teach graduating students how to properly select, open, and pour wine. Wine is a fixture in today's business world and young professionals should possess a basic knowledge of wine etiquette. Chris Picco, a sommelier, will be joining us to explain exactly what you need to know about navigating the complexities of wine in a professional setting.

H. WAYNE SNIDER DISTINGUISHED GUEST LECTURER SERIES

Anzio Williams

Vice President of News at NBC 10 and Telemundo 62

Wednesday, November 6, 2019, 12:00pm-12:50pm, Alter Hall 031

Anzio Williams joined NBC10 in July of 2012. Prior to joining NBC10, he spent 12 years with Hearst Television working as News Director in Sacramento, California and New Orleans, Louisiana. He also served as Assistant News Director at NBC stations in Orlando, Florida and in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Williams started his career as a sports and news producer in Greensboro, North Carolina. He moved on to Miami, Florida, where he managed weekend news coverage. His next stop took him to Cincinnati, Ohio where he was an executive producer overseeing newscasts and special sports programming.

Williams has a distinguished record of accomplishments as a news manager. Most notably, it was during his tenure at WDSU that Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans. Knowing it was a critical time to keep the community informed, Williams' newsroom staff stayed on track through the most difficult circumstances and aggressively covered the storm and its aftermath.

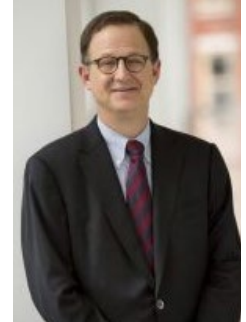

Williams is the recipient of nine Emmy Awards for Outstanding Achievement, Best Newscast, Breaking News and Continuing Coverage. He was also a member of news teams honored with six Edward R. Murrow and two George Foster Peabody Awards.

Williams currently serves on two boards in the Philadelphia area: the American Diabetes Association and the Urban League of Philadelphia. He is also a member of the National Association of Black Journalists. Originally from Durham, North Carolina, he graduated from North Carolina A&T State University with a B.A. in Broadcast News.

MEET OUR FACULTY!

M. Michael Zuckerman, JD, MBA, ACI

This semester, Professor Zuckerman teaches Risk Financing and Managing Risk across the Enterprise (RMI 3505 & RMI 4597). He also teaches Managing Risk Across the Enterprise in the MBA Program. Professor Zuckerman is the Academic Director for the Enterprise Risk Management and Alternative Risk Financing Initiative for the department.

Fun fact: Professor Zuckerman was the men's basketball team's manager at his high school. One night, both the head coach and assistant coach were thrown out by the referees, so he had to take over and coach the team to an overtime victory. He has a lifetime one-win and zero-loss coaching record!
