H. WAYNE SNIDER DISTINGUISHED GUEST LECTURER SERIES

Martin South

President, US and Canada Division at Marsh

Wednesday, September 11, 2019, 12:00pm-12:50pm, Alter Hall 031

As President, US and Canada Division, Martin South leads the region's business and operational leaders in driving Marsh's strategy. He is a member of the Marsh executive committee and oversees Marsh's US and Canada core brokerage and portfolio of businesses across industries and risk practices. Martin is committed to advancing the critical conversation about increasing diversity and inclusion within the insurance industry. He believes diversity of thought produces innovative solutions for clients, improved business performance for companies, and more nurturing environments for employees. Martin is a former president of the Chartered Insurance Institute of London and an alumnus of the World Economic Forum's Young Global Leaders program. He is married and resides in New York.

Martin has more than 30 years of experience in the insurance industry. He joined Marsh for the first time in 1985 with Bowring Marsh, a Marsh & McLennan Companies broking unit. His industry experience includes senior leadership roles at Zurich Financial Services, where he was a member of the company's group management board, responsible for all of Zurich's operations outside of North America and Europe, and CEO of Zurich's London operations.

Since rejoining Marsh in 2007, Martin has also served as CEO of Marsh's Asia-Pacific region, CEO of Marsh UK and Ireland, and CEO of Marsh Europe.

Meet our Faculty!

Storm Wilkins, Esq., CPCU, ITP, IR

This semester, Professor Wilkins teaches Introduction to Risk Management and Managing Property Liability Risk II. She is also the Core Course Coordinator for Introduction to Risk Management (RMI 2101).

Fun facts: She taught RMI 2101 at Temple University Rome in 2019! Her favorite trip was to the Island of Capri near Naples. Her dog is named Diamond.
