H. WAYNE SNIDER DISTINGUISHED GUEST LECTURER SERIES

Wednesday
September 16th, 2009
 12:00PM - 12:50PM
 Alter Hall Auditorium

Our first lecture of the series is sure to be an exciting start as we will take part in an unprecedented event by combining with the Society for Human Resource Management to hear from Don Lowman.

Don Lowman
Managing Director
 Towers Perrin
 Washington, D.C.

Don is a Managing Director in Towers Perrin's Human Capital Group and is responsible for the business's sales, intellectual capital, marketing and Client Relationship Management (CRM) activities. He also serves as a member of Towers Perrin's Board of Directors. Since joining the firm as an executive compensation consultant in 1982, he has served as Managing Director for the firm's global markets and managed several lines of business. In addition to Don's leadership roles, he continues to provide executive compensation and total rewards consulting for a number of large global clients. He was recognized as one of the top 25 consultants in the world by Consulting magazine in 2003.

Don is a frequent speaker on strategic compensation, employee engagement and performance management issues and a member of WorldatWork. He holds a BA in English from Randolph-Macon College and an MBA in Finance from the College of William and Mary in Virginia.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Etiquette Workshop

Thursday, September 17th 2009
4:45PM - 6:15PM

Come learn from our etiquette guru, Janice Moore Campbell, the essentials to impress your future potential employers and colleagues on a dinner interview. For students taking BA 2101 or looking to be included in the Resume Book (graduating seniors too), it is mandatory that you attend one of these workshops. If you have already completed this in a previous year, you have fulfilled this requirement. Sign up on the clipboard by the plasma screen.
