SIGMA CHAPTER HOSTS 2009 RMI INTERN CAREER RECEPTION

Are you looking for an internship this summer? Have you met all of the requirements to be in our resume book? If you answered yes to both of these questions, then there is only one place to be on Monday, March 2nd, between 1:00 PM and 6:00 PM. Gamma Iota Sigma—Sigma Chapter will be hosting its annual Intern Career reception in the Great Court at Mitten Hall. More than 20 companies from across the country will be interviewing for summer internship positions. Whether you're interested in Property and Casualty or Employee Benefits, you'll have plenty of chances to make a good impression and learn about opportunities for this summer. Be sure to get there early and see as many companies as possible!

O'HEARN'S TOP 5 GAMMA QUOTES OF THE WEEK

“Clients don't have math problems. They have real problems.”

- Dr. Drennan, to a group of frightened new Actuarial Science majors.

“Where are the pins? Are they in the box that has ‘pins’ written on it?”

- Gamma officer Luba Sakalova, in search of GIS pins.

“JIM O'HEARN IS DEAD TO ME!!” [censored version]

- Gamma member Bill Gant, from across Liacouras Walk. He had his reasons.

“What are you the VP of? We know it's not shaving...”

- Dr. Drennan, commenting on Jim O'Hearn's grooming habits.

“Yea, I was wondering who this Burgundy guy was.”

- Gamma officer Farhaz Jessani, on learning that Ron Burgundy was not, in fact, at last week's Wednesday speaker, regardless of what the sign in sheet may have said.
