H. WAYNE SNIDER DISTINGUISHED GUEST LECTURER SERIES

Brandon Billingsley
(Class of 2014)

Senior Employee Benefits Consultant
Brown & Brown

Wednesday, February 5, 2020, 12:00pm-12:50pm, Alter Hall 031

As a Senior Employee Benefits Consultant with Brown & Brown, Brandon is responsible for Business Development in the Greater Houston area. He works closely with his clients, team-members, and vendors in developing comprehensive benefit offerings which are aligned with an organization's culture. This process includes plan design analysis, contribution modeling, compliance audits, and administrative process implementation.

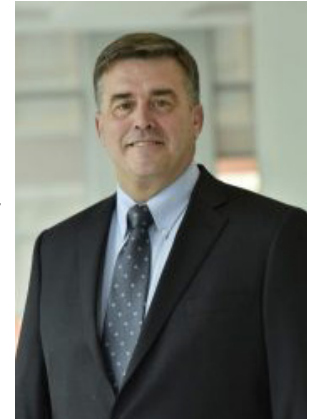

Outside of his daily operations, Brandon sits on Brown & Brown's National Population Health and Wellbeing Advisory Committee. This committee is comprised of thought leaders across Brown & Brown who are responsible for the vetting of third party vendors and implementing best practices across Brown & Brown's 240+ locations. He is also involved with the interview process and training of Employee Benefit teammates at Brown & Brown Houston.

Brandon is a United States Marine Corps Veteran and a graduate of Temple University's Risk Management and Insurance program. He is licensed in Life, Accident, Health and HMO, and Property and Casualty.

MEET OUR FACULTY!

Dr. Randy Dumm

This semester, Dr. Dumm will be teaching Managing International Risk (RMI 3567). Dr. Dumm is the past-president of both the Southern and Western Risk and Insurance Associations, and was recently elected to the board of directors of the American Risk and Insurance Association. In 2004 Dr. Dumm completed the Fulbright Scholars program at Vienna University of Business and Economics, and in 2014 Dr. Dumm received the Shin Research Excellence Award during the International Insurance Society Seminar in London.

Fun fact: In his younger days, Prof. Dumm played for the Chambersburg Turtlehead Rugby Team!
