RMI Career Development Workshop: Professional Designations

Monday, March 19, 2018
12:00pm-12:50pm
Alter Hall 031

This week's RMI Career Development Workshop provides members the great opportunity to hear about the various Professional Designations that a Risk Management professional can earn. It is important to learn about these designations so that students can begin taking exams while they are still at Temple, or so that they are better prepared when they graduate!

Actuarial Science Career Development Workshop: Basic VBA

Monday, March 19, 2018
12:00pm-12:50pm
Alter Hall 034

Basic knowledge of Excel and VBA is essential for many Actuarial internships and jobs. In this week's hands on Workshop, students have the opportunity to learn some basic VBA skills. This is a great refresher for students who are already familiar with the program, as well as a great overview for those who are unfamiliar with VBA.

4th Annual Fox's Got Talent

Thursday, March 22, 2018
7:00pm-9:00pm
Fox-Gittis Room, Liacouras Center

Come show off your unique talents at the 4th Annual Fox's Got Talent! The purpose of Fox's Got Talent is to bring together the SPO communities of the Fox School of Business while discovering and appreciating the varying talent of the school's individuals. All Fox School of Business students are eligible to attend and/or participate in this event. There will also be a 50/50 raffle at this event for our Charity of Choice, Michael's Giving H.A.N.D! There is also an opportunity for members to earn SEP points. Contact Max Courtney (max.g.courtney@temple.edu) if you have any questions about the event.
