SIGMA CHAPTER IS #1!!

Winner of the Edison L. Bowers Award Chicago Management Conference

Congratulations to the Sigma Chapter of Gamma Iota Sigma for winning its 19th Edison L. Bowers Award at the 47th Annual Management Conference in Chicago this past weekend! As one of the seven Superior Chapter Award recipients, the Sigma Chapter, along with the other Superior Chapters, presented to a panel of judges who determined the best overall chapter. This year, Kyle Betley (Class of 2019), Ryan Klapatch (Class of 2019), Varun Sivakumar (Class of 2020), and Brian Fritz (Class of 2019), represented the Sigma Chapter. The Bowers Award is the highest honor a chapter can receive from the Grand Chapter. The Sigma Chapter is so proud of its accomplishment!

In addition, both Elizabeth Arbegast (Class of 2018) and Amanda Wolfgang (Class of 2018) were awarded the Warren L. Weeks Scholarship for each of their valuable contributions to the chapter and for their leadership. The Sigma Chapter also won 4 Black and Gold Awards, which is awarded for creative ideas implemented in the previous year. The Black and Gold Awards were awarded for the Actuarial Lending Library, Updated Resume Book, Yearbook, and Classroom Integration. Finally, the Sigma Chapter received International Chapter Awards for all 6 categories, including the new Diversity and Inclusion, Chapter Management, Membership Development, Alumni Relations, Public Relations, and Community Service.

Vice President

Lockton Companies

Wednesday, October 10, 2018, 12:00PM-12:50PM, Alter Hall 031

Martin is Vice President and Commercial Insurance Unit Manager in Lockton Northeast's Philadelphia office. In this position, he manages the local account team responsible for managing client relationships and placing clients' insurance programs.

He works closely with clients to design and implement risk management solutions that are tailored to their individual needs through a strategic engagement process that ties each client's risk management objectives to their broader business goals. He also leads Lockton's cross-departmental service team, ensuring that the full breadth of Lockton's resources are effectively delivered to clients, including placement, account management, analytics, claims and safety services.

Martin's background at both regional and multinational insurance brokerage firms gives him a unique diversity of experience that is well-aligned with Lockton's business model—local service delivery coupled with expansive global resources. He has experience with clients in a broad range of industries, including transportation, real estate, construction, financial institutions, professional services, manufacturing and human services.

Prior to starting his brokerage career, Martin was a teacher's assistant in Temple University's Department of Risk Management and Insurance, providing him with a strong risk management foundation early in his career.
