VOLUME XXX, ISSUE VII

MARCH 18, 2013

The H. Wayne Snider Distinguished Guest Lecturer Series presents:

Amy Laverock

Global Health and Benefits Strategic Solutions Leader

Mercer

2012 Woman to Watch by Business Insurance Magazine

Wednesday, March 20, 2013, Alter Hall 031 - 12-12:50PM

Amy Laverock is a Partner in the Health & Benefits business global team and is the Global Health & Benefits Strategic Solutions Leader with oversight of health & benefits solutions for multinationals (including global benefits management and global health management), based in New York.

In her consulting role, she assists clients with the design, delivery and funding of employee benefits plans and health management programs around the world. This includes health risk management, global benefits management, flexible benefits plan design & implementation, and merger & acquisition projects. In the role, she facilitates benefit plan integrations, educates plan sponsors around benefit plan cost management and identifies cost savings opportunities.

Amy joined Mercer in 1997 after gaining generalist experience working in the human resources department of a major Western Canadian private sector company with global operations. She has worked for Mercer in Vancouver, Singapore, and Paris and is now based in New York. Amy has fifteen years of experience at Mercer.

Amy graduated from the University of British Columbia in 1997 with a Bachelor of Commerce, specializing in industrial relations management. She focused her studies on strategic human resources management, labor relations, organizational behavior and employment law.

Intern Interview Skills Workshops

Friday, March 22, 2013 & Saturday, March 23, 2013 - 9am-12pm, Rooms TBA

Under the instruction of Career Coach, Anna Papalia, members will learn crucial information in preparation for the upcoming RMI Intern Reception including proper business attire, interview conduct, and much more. The Professional Development team is resuming interview skills workshops for students who need to complete the requirement for BA2101 through Gamma Iota Sigma. Space is limited to 15 participants per workshop, so sign up early.

RMI Workshop: Insurance Law Discussion
Friday, March 22, 2013, 12-12:50pm, Speakman 112

At this workshop, William H. Howard, Esquire will discuss claims litigation in the insurance industry. He has experience representing both claimants and insurers in a private practice and is currently part of the legal department at Zurich North America. This workshop will expose students to the legal aspects of the insurance industry and provide valuable knowledge as members prepare for summer internships or full-time positions.

Actuarial Science Workshop: P/C vs. Life/Health
Friday, March 22, 2013 - 12-12:50pm, Speakman 114

This workshop will focus on the differences between actuarial work in the property and casualty industry versus working in the life/health industry. The speakers will discuss day-to-day tasks, challenges, and benefits of both. If you are unsure of which direction you want to take your career, this is a workshop you do not want to miss!

St. Patrick's Day Bake Sale
Friday, March 22, 2013, 9am-3pm
Alter Hall Lobby

Be sure to stop by the shamrock adorned Gamma bake sale table this Friday to pick up a baked good for good luck! All proceeds go towards our Charity of Choice, ESF Dream Camp. The committee penny wars bins will also be at the table, so be sure to bring any spare change you've been saving. The winning committee wins a pizza party at their final committee meeting!
