Risky Business

VOLUME XXXII, ISSUE V

FEBRUARY 24, 2014

The H. Wayne Snider Distinguished Guest Lecturer Series presents:

Mark Bove, CPCU, ARe

Senior Research Meteorologist

Munich Re

Wednesday, February 26, 2014, Alter Hall 031 - 12-12:50PM

Mr. Mark Bove is a Senior Research Meteorologist in the Risk Accumulation Department of Munich Reinsurance America. His responsibilities include evaluating commercially available catastrophe risk models and providing technical expertise on underwriting and risk accumulation issues.

Mr. Bove has been active in meteorological consulting and research for over 15 years. Before joining Munich Reinsurance America in July 2000, Mark was a graduate research assistant at Florida State University in Tallahassee, Florida. At Florida State, Mark conducted research on short-term climate variations and probabilistic modeling of extreme weather events. Research highlights include studies of El Niño's influence on hurricane landfall frequencies and tornadic activity patterns in the United States. Other research and consulting topics included seasonal temperature and precipitation anomalies in the United States and Latin America. Mark's research made national headlines on several occasions and he was the 1998 recipient of the Father James B. Macelwane award for outstanding undergraduate research by the American Meteorological Society.

Mark holds Masters and Bachelors degrees in Meteorology from Florida State University and has earned the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) and Associate in Reinsurance professional designations.

Sigma Chapter Ice Skating Extravaganza Thursday, February 27, 2014 - 7-8:30pm - Penn's Landing

Come on down to Penn's Landing with your fellow Sigma Chapter members and officers for a magical night of ice skating at the Blue Cross RiverRink. It will be Student Night at the rink so admission is free when you show your Temple University ID, while the cost to rent skates from the rink will be $10. You can join some of your fellow officers for the commute down to Penn's Landing via the subway. We will be meeting at the Cecil B. Moore subway stop at 5:45pm Thursday evening in order to head down together. Join us as we look to enjoy some wintery fun together as Spring quickly approaches! Contact Vanessa Vander Brink, Vice President of Student Affairs, with any questions regarding this awesome event!
