Gamma Iota Sigma (GIS) is the international risk management, insurance and actuarial science professional fraternity. The Sigma Chapter at Temple University, chartered in 1980, is one of 105 GIS chapters nationwide. It strives to build a sense of community and cohesion among members, while improving their career opportunities through increased knowledge of the industry.

Temple's Sigma Chapter has won the prestigious Edison L. Bowers Award 22 times. This award, presented annually by the Grand Chapter of Gamma Iota Sigma, recognizes the chapter with the most well-rounded and organized program and is the highest award a chapter can receive.

DEPARTMENT OF RISK, ACTUARIAL SCIENCE, AND LEGAL STUDIES

Jeffrey Boles, JD, PhD | Chairman and Associate Professor

With over 500 students and 18 full-time faculty, The Fox School's Department of Risk, Actuarial Science and Legal Studies (RALS) is the largest of its kind in the world. The department offers both undergraduate (BBA) and graduate (MS, MHA and PhD) degrees and hosts four academic program areas Actuarial Science, Healthcare Management, Legal Studies, and Risk Management.

Temple maintains a distinguished tradition of educating the nation's finest risk, insurance, actuarial, legal and healthcare systems professionals. RALS faculty are committed teachers and scholars, recognized both nationally and internationally for curriculum development and research excellence. Today's global economy requires executive decision makers able to manage the total risk of a firm in a multinational setting. The Fox School's RALS Department prepares students for this challenge.

FOX SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The vision of Temple University's Fox School of Business is to transform student lives, develop leaders and impact our local and global communities through excellence and innovation in education and research. Established in 1918, the Fox School is the largest, most-comprehensive business school in the Philadelphia region, and among the largest in the world, with more than 5,700 students, more than 155 full-time faculty and more than 72,000 alumni around the globe.

Accredited by AACSB International—a distinction held by fewer than 5 percent of the world's business schools—the Fox School offers BBA, BS, Online BBA, Global MBA, Part-Time MBA, Executive MBA, Online MBA, Specialized Masters, PhD programs and an Executive Doctorate in Business Administration on campuses throughout the world.

The Fox School's research institutes and centers as well as its full- and part-time faculty provide access to market-leading technologies and foster a collaborative and creative learning environment that offers more than curriculum—it offers an experience. Coupled with its leading student services, the Fox School ensures that its graduates are fully prepared to enter the job market.

The flexibility and responsiveness of our knowledge-creating research faculty allows the school to address the needs of industry and generate courses and programs in emerging fields. As a leader in business research, the Fox School values interdisciplinary approaches and translational research that influence and impact real-world problems. Our research informs an adaptive curriculum, supports innovation in teaching and prepares students for the ever-changing business environment.

in Risk Management and Insurance

Jillian Turner
Class of 2011

Jillian has worked as an Financial Consultant with MMA for over thirteen years, providing underwriting, financial, and risk analysis support for clients. She is an expert in carrier renewal management and negotiations, marketing analyses for all lines of coverage and funding arrangements, renewal projections, and cost and utilization analyses. Jillian has developed a particular interest in alternative funding arrangements and prescription drug coverage, specifically surrounding the emergence of specialty medications and the management of future costs and utilization. Jillian has experience working primarily with clients from 500 to 5,000 lives in a variety of industries.

In addition to maintaining her book of business, Jillian remains heavily involved in Temple University's Risk Management student professional organization (Gamma Iota Sigma), serving as a sponsor and judge for the annual Employee Benefits Case Competition held each Fall and representing MMA at various industry-to-campus events throughout the year. Jillian also acts as the recruiting liaison between Temple University and MMA, assisting as needed in the recruiting process for the Financial Team.

In her free time, Jillian is an endurance coach with Mindrunner Coaching and an avid distance runner; she can often be found training on the road and trails with her four-legged running companion, Flavio. When not running, you will find her in the mountains camping, hiking or skiing, scoping out a new dinner spot in town or at the local animal shelter volunteering for animals in need.

Jillian is based out of her home office in Santa Barbara, CA.

2024 G. William Glendenning Distinguished
Young Alumni Award in Actuarial Science

Tom Callahan
Class of 2010

Tom Callahan is Manager & Actuary at Independence Blue Cross.

In his current role, Tom manages the company's reserves and reporting on risk adjustment revenue and premium rebates related to the minimum MLR provision of the Affordable Care Act. Prior to this role, he had a range of rotations spanning Enterprise Risk Management, Medicaid, Medicare Pricing, and Medical Cost Analysis.

For two years, Tom served as President of the Actuaries Club of Philadelphia. In this capacity, he had the privilege to participate in a panel discussion about the future of the actuarial profession held during the 2022 Society of Actuaries' Health Meeting.

Tom graduated from Temple University in 2010 with a BBA in Actuarial Science and became a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries in 2013. He supports IBC's recruiting at Temple and has returned to the university on several occasions to give presentations.

Tom lives in Philadelphia with his wife and two young kids. He has become skilled at changing diapers and has learned that all the insurance in the world can't prevent disaster when a child does not get enough sleep..

2024 Bonnie Averbach Distinguished Alumni Award in Actuarial Science

Josh Fishman,
FCAS, MAAA
Class of 1997

Josh leads the Gallagher Re Actuarial department in Philadelphia. Josh also works as a lead broker on some casualty accounts. He has been assisting clients across different Property and Casualty lines of business with technical aspects of reinsurance analysis, optimal structure selection, recommendations and assumption advocacy in negotiation with reinsurers.

Josh joined Gallagher Re (formerly Willis Re) in 2016 after 13 years of service with Swiss Re. He worked as a Vice President and Senior Treaty Underwriter starting in 2009, and as a Vice President and Senior Actuary prior to his move to underwriting. Josh was primarily responsible for regional and Specialty Property and Casualty business.

Josh started his career in 1995 at Munich Re as an intern, holding various positions during his eight years there, including in treaty pricing, structured reinsurance pricing, facultative pricing, ocean marine pricing and reserving.

Josh is a graduate of Temple University in Philadelphia, PA, where he earned a BBA in Actuarial Science. He is a past president of Casualty Actuaries in Reinsurance and continues to volunteer on the committee.

Brandon Fick
Class of 1996

Brandon leads the Underwriting function for GRS North America, an $8+ billion commercial insurance operation comprised of the National, Middle Market and Specialty customer segments.

Brandon brings more than 25 years of experience to Liberty Mutual's Global Risk Solutions North America business unit. He recently joined Liberty in August 2022 from Zurich North America, where he spent the last 4 years as their North America CUO. Throughout his career he has held various Management and Portfolio roles, including leading teams focused on providing solutions to Large Casualty customers. Brandon also currently serves on the NCCI Board of Directors as Board Chair.

In his current role, Brandon has ownership of underwriting strategy and driving profitable results for GRS NA. This includes developing and driving underwriting appetite across the Business Unit to ensure consistency and clarity to all stakeholders, identifying growth opportunities, develop reinsurance strategies, and monitoring developments in the relevant markets and risk environments that could impact portfolio performance.

Brandon has a Bachelor's degree in Risk Management and Insurance as well as Business Law from Temple University.

Temple University Alma Mater

Onward with Temple,
Banners all unfurled;
Wide flung our standards,
To the winds they're hurled.
Following our Founder
To immortal Fame;
Making true his vision,
Of a deathless name.
Hail! Alma Mater,
Honor, praise to Thee;
We pledge our lives,
Our hearts in loyalty.
Wisdom, Truth and Virtue
Built our Temple great;
Perseverance conquers;
Higher to create.
